PUBOHASE OF A GOLD MINN .- On Tuesday. the oth instant, the valuable mineral farm, con taining 565 acres, known as Lorton's Gold Mine, with the intention of working it. Prior to the war, this mine, situated near Perryville, a station on the Blue Ridge Railroad, was worked by nogroes. It possesses every convenience for its working. The work will be pushed rapidly

CORONER'S INQUEST .- Coroner Whiting held an inquest on Saturday, at the Roper Hospital, ever the body of a scaman who had been injured by a fall from the musthead while the vessel was at sea. He had been sick for some time, and the

The jury on the marder case will convene to-day a vordiot will probably be rendered.

LUCKY ESCAPR .- While Dr. Ogier, Sr., was driving out in his buggy on Sunday after-noon, accompanied by his servant, the axie snapped in two. The doctor and his servant were both thrown out, and the horse, finding itself on controlled, darted off at rapid pace, and went a derable distance before it could be stopped. The doctor and his servant, we are happy to say, escaped with only a few slight bruises and a startling fright, the buggy being broken to pieces

THE CASE OF MR. CHARLES CAHN .- A New York dispatch states that Mr. Cahn, the broker, of this city, whose recent arrest in New York for alleged forgery has already been noticed, has succeeded in vindicating himself. It appears that he had sent funds to New York to meet his trafts, but reached that city in advance of the money. His draft for $10,000 was dishonored and he was arrested. Satisfactory explanations were made before Judge Ingraham and he was released

PALMETTO LEAVES IN COMMERCE. - Late advices from England state that there lately arrived in Liverpool from New York 4075 bundles of palm leaves, weighing forty tons, which were so or $256 currency per ton. The leaves are the product of the palmetto tree of the Southern States, and a large and profitable business, it is asserted, has been established in gathering picking in bundles and exporting, what has here fore been a uscless product. In all 7595 bundles of palmetto leaves have arrived in Liverpool.

CONFLAGRATION IN FLOR ENGB. S. C .- On Friin the bakehouse of Mr. Philip Buchhelt, Jr. tr Front street, Florence, caused from a defective sae in the chimney. Had it not been for the exertions of Mr. George A. Howard and the news boy, John Dart, the whole block would probably have been consumed. The Florence fire engine were promptly on the snot but the searcity of water rendered its efforts comparatively useless. Mr. Buchheit has sustained no loss to his stock, and the repairs to the building

AN AMUSING INCIDENT .- On Friday morning hast, while Jim Dullose (colored constable of E. W. Lloyd, at Piorence,) was taking a prisoner to the Darlington jall, for cow stealing, (said prisoner being handcuffed and chained to the back of the ouggy,) he lost his hat accidentally. Jim, ever polite, gave the prisoner the reins and went back at ter the hat, whilst Smart, the prisoner, urged on the steed at a fearful speed, leaving polite Jim, hat in hand, far in the distance, a sadder, but we hope, a wiser man. After driving rapidly for two miles, prisoner halted the foaming animal, and after tearing off the back of the buggy to which he had been chained, took to the woods, leaving the vehicle a wreck and the constable a wretch man. Capt. E. W. Lloyd, to whom the buggy belongs, has our sympathies.

THE MAGAZINES.—The Eclectic for December has for a frontispiece a portrait of the famous Pere Hyacinthe. Among the many valuable articles which it contains we note especially "France and the (Ecumenical Council of 1869," from the British Quarterly, "Terrestriat Magnetism" from Chamber's Journal, and the continuation of "Roman Imperialism," by Professor Seeley. This number closes a volume, and this is a good tim to subscribe to what is unquestionably one of the to subscribe to what is unquestionally, most valuable magazines in the country.

Bivorside we have often had occasion to speak. it is highly sparkling and pure, as full of inforamusement-the best magazine for young people that we have seen. Both the Relectic and Riverside may be had at says:

Still young, and as it were just entering upon her duties and studies, she, of course, has still much to learn. Refined in all that makes the true woman, thus carly in her career she yet healtates to give herself up to her parts. With her early associations and culture her nature yet shrinks from too great a display of abandon. But having overcome these difficulties and having practiced her voice, and having educated herself in the stage tricks or business, she will doubtless take a high stand.

We are sure that Miss Alexander will be warmly
